

Venue Finding

Venue Finding Services Our unique & free service...

Finding the right venue is paramount to the success of your activity day and we offer a personal and unique FREE venue sourcing service. With over 25 years' experience working within the hotel and conference industry, we are well versed in the daunting and time consuming work involved in obtaining quotes and information so that decisions can be made.

Add to this our ability to negotiate, on your behalf, to achieve excellent discounted rates from hotel groups and independent venues and you will see that M&MR can provide a truly all encompassing and comprehensive venue sourcing service to match your needs.

• Conference Venues

As one of the leading and most experienced venue finding agencies, our reputation has been built on in-depth knowledge and understanding. We can organise a one-to-one meeting or a gathering for 300+ in the UK, Europe or worldwide.

Whatever type of event you are planning, we will provide valuable advice and suggestions to ensure that your day runs perfectly. We also ensure that you have all the correct equipment that you require in place. We will provide you with a detailed confirmation by email or fax, a full event schedule detailing an in-depth breakdown of the day, together with vital information and website links. You will also receive a comprehensive breakdown of costs, on-site venue contacts, location maps, as well as support for any VIP guest requirements you may have.

Our venue portfolio includes traditional, modern, boutique and chic hotels, conference and exhibition centres, stately homes, galleries and museums, castles, resorts, spas and universities – together with a host of unique venues in the UK, across Europe and even worldwide.

• Activity Day & Family Fun Day Venues

We can source exactly the type of location we feel will be ideal to host your day, ranging from a country house hotel to a rugby club, a recommended hotel chain or even a field. We are even happier to help organise the day if you would like our support.

Our negotiating skills will get you the best deal and we can accompany you on a site inspection if you so wish.

- Roadshow Venues

If you are planning to run a Roadshow, M&MR are the experts when it comes to uncovering the most appropriate venues for you to showcase your products and services across the UK ranging from hotels, conference centres, suitable sporting venues such as football stadia and cricket grounds to specific best placed venues that offer the facilities you require.

Our service also extends to seeking out and booking local accommodation for your party to alleviate travel fatigue and save time

- Unusual Venues

Our knowledge bank and contact list provide access to all manner of locations to give your gathering an extra special ambience.

Consider the inspiration you may find in venues as diverse and interesting as a boat or a nightclub, maybe a heritage site or a majestic livery hall, or how about a stately home!

Many such sites open their doors on an exclusive basis for corporate events and you could be walking through them courtesy of the industry leading M&MR service.

- Professional Service

As member of the following associations, the Hotel Booking Agents Association (HBAA) and the Meetings Industry Association (MIA), M&MR enjoys the benefits of access to discounted rates, and the support of these accredited organisations – thus giving assurance and integrity to corporate clients.

Included in the MIA membership is the necessary requisite of having to pass a stringent level of quality assurance accreditation, thus giving further guarantees of service levels to potential customers.

“Thank you very much for helping us run what was a very successful event last Friday and Saturday. The venue was great, the organisation was excellent and the food and accommodation superb”
